

Décor Overview

The entrance lobby and trade room floor

The moment you enter the door you will be part of an event experience

What Dreams Are Made Of. ... All of the décor, ceiling embellishments and furnishing have been designed to carry an overall theme of elegance.

Enter

The area in front of you will be a staged bridal salon. Dresses hanging in a handsome cabinet. Wing back chairs, flooring and a elegant bridal gown displayed on a mannequin. Ornate flower arrangements surround the set with music and a sign artfully displayed on an easel that reads.

Now that you have said

YES

Next it is the dress

And

All the Rest

A path outlined with floral décor leads you to the show room floor with an additional welcome sign. The trade floor designed to reflect a spacious and modern feel will be designed in white, silver and a hint of black. A combination of crystal chandeliers and decorative lanterns in varying shapes will hang from the ceiling. Small stages will be scattered out detailing additional wedding gowns and other wedding attire. The show room stage will be defined with décor and a visual display screen will. Bistro tables scattered about will display the latest linen trends. Every detail is about the show and no area will go untouched from the registration area to the bags that are given to the show attendees with your promotional materials inside.

We want you to be a part of a show that will generate excitement and part of
